Foreword

In continuity with the Gothic structure . . .
Old Main Memorial . . .
The Argo presents
Westminster: its campus and faculty; its students and life; its fraternities and other organizations through Gothic archways.

SLIPPERY ROCK GAME

WESTMINSTER'S football team faced a difficult schedule this year with new coaches and a new system. The coaches were the brothers Bill and Tom Gibane, former Brown stars, and proteges of Tuss McLaughry, whose system they introduced.

WESTMINSTER 7 — SLIPPERY ROCK 0

September 22

The Rockets of Slippery Rock State Teacher's College were met in the opener on the New Wilmington field. Midsummer heat and a violent rainstorm during the second half added variety to the game which was close and fiercely contested. About the middle of the second period one of the Titan players intercepted a Slippery Rock pass on the Rocket twenty-five yard line. This, so it proved, paved the way for the only score of the game, for on the second down a pass to Strasberg on the ten yard line enabled him to cross the goal.

WESTMINSTER 14 — JOHN CARROLL 34 September 28

This game was played under the lights at the Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The game was much more even than the score would indicate, for all the points were scored by spectacular passes and running plays. After a scoreless first quarter the Blue streaks went on a spree and garnered twenty of their points before half-time. Ray Sweeney's eighty-yard run late in this period made the first Westminster touchdown. The second Titan score was added in the third quarter when Laraway caught a pass and raced over the goal line.

WESTMINSTER 0 — FORDHAM 57 October 6

With "rain adding to the game and detracting from the crowd," Westminster was soundly drubbed by the Fordham Ram in Yankee Stadium, New York. The extreme power of the Fordham team left little doubt concerning the outcome before the game less doubt at half time when the score was forty-five to nothing, and no doubt at all at the final gun when the Rams had added two more touchdowns.

WESTMINSTER 20 — EDINBORO 0 October 13

This time the team journeyed to Edinboro and took a game from the Red Raiders of the teacher's college twenty to nothing. Weakened but not daunted by the absence of several players who were injured in the Fordham game, the team rolled up a total of twenty first downs and at the same time presented a wall of blue and white which the Edinboro team was unable to penetrate. The three touchdowns, which were scored in the second and third periods, were made by Staples and Sweeney.

WESTMINSTER 7 — THIEL 6 October 20

The Titans flashed their finest exhibition of the season to take the hitherto unbeaten Thiel Lutherans seven to six. The game was played in New Wilmington before a Homecoming crowd of over three thousand, the largest in many years, and marked the third straight year that Westminster has beaten Thiel. Things looked very black for the Westminsterites between halves, for late in the second quarter a Thiel back had broken loose and carried the ball twenty-six yards to the Westminster eight yard line. This run prepared the way for the Lutheran touchdown which was scored a few plays later. However, coming back strongly in the early part of the third period, the Blue and White recovered a fumbled punt and soon had the ball to the Thiel ten yard line. From here a lateral pass to Bailey tied the score, and the addition of the extra point gave Westminster a lead which was never relinquished.

MUSKINGUM GAME

WESTMINSTER 0 — PITT 30

October 27

Defying the violent storm of rain and sleet that swept over Taggart Field in New Castle, the mere handful of spectators saw the nationally rating Pitt Panthers crush the game but hopelessly outclassed Titans thirty to nothing. After the first play of the game, which was a Titan pass completed for twenty-three yards, the Blue and White was never in it, while time after time the Pitt backs slashed through the Westminster defense.

WESTMINSTER 2 — GROVE CITY 2

November 3

On this warm November day before a Grove City Homecoming crowd the Titans and Grovers fought to a deadlock in what proved to be one of the most exciting games of the entire season. From the kickoff till the final gun spectacular passes and runs predominated. Westminster's two points came when a bad pass from center caused the Grove City full-back to be tackled behind his own goal line, while a blocked Titan punt from behind their own goal line gave Grove City their two points. These two safeties were the only scores of the day, but both teams threatened their opponent's goal line several times throughout the game. Although the superior play of the Westminster line enabled the Titans to gain four more first downs than the Grovers, the fine punting of the Grove City full-back forced the Titans into their own territory time after time.

WESTMINSTER 0 — WAYNESBURG 20

November 10

The next Saturday the team went to Waynesburg to battle the Yellow Jackets of Waynesburg College. They opened strong, scoring two touchdowns in the first period; while a blocked Westminster punt permitted their final score in the fourth. Late in the final period the Titans made their first real threat of the game, but the drive was stopped by the final gun.

WESTMINSTER 0 — MUSKINGUM 2

November 16

In an evenly fought game before a Muskingum College Homecoming crowd at New Concord, Ohio, the Titans were again defeated. The only score was a safety which was caused by a bad pass from center when it forced one of the Westminster backs to be downed behind his own goal line. Each team finished the game with a total of eleven first downs. This unfortunate defeat is the third close, hard-fought one that Muskingum has inflicted on the Titans in as many years.

WESTMINSTER 0 — GENEVA 6

November 24

This last game of a long difficult season was a defeat at the hands of the Geneva College Covenanters on the New Wilmington field. Like almost all of the games with district rivals, the contest was closely fought. The first two and the last quarters were scoreless, but in the third a Westminster player only partially blocked a long Geneva pass, and the ball fell into the hands of a waiting Covenanter who sped for the goal line.

SCARBOROUGH

ARROWSMITH

With the completion of this Geneva game six players doffed their uniforms for the last time. They are Ray Sweeney, Bill Staples, Harold Burry, Walt Young, Lou Franklin, and Bob Scarbrough. Needless to say, these men, who have all been first team players for three and in some cases four seasons, will be genuinely missed by Westminster's football squad. We know no better way to thank them for the tireless services they have rendered the school than to tell them that we sincerely wish them a great deal of success in the future.

The seventeen members of the squad who were awarded football letters for the season are: Ray Sweeney, Youngstown; William Staples, Butler; Harold Burry, New Castle; Walter Young, Freeport, L. I.; Richard Watt, Struthers; Merrill Straw, Turtle Creek; Edwin Austen, Etna; Jack Laraway, Erie; Ralph Clark, Providence, R. I.; Anthony Krulatz, Butler; Abraham Strasberg, Providence, R. I.; Donald Helmick, Uniontown; James Bailey, Sharon; Robert Arrowsmith, Erie; and David Mintz, Butler. Student manager Nelson Greer of New Wilmington was also awarded a letter. In spite of graduation there are eleven men left as a nucleus for next season's team, and with the promise of a shorter schedule with games against only district rivals we are looking forward to an entirely successful season.

BETHANY GAME

WESTMINSTER College has had splendid basketball teams ever since Professor John Lawther became coach nine years ago. During these nine years the Titans, who have averaged only three defeats a season, have held five district and six conference titles. Here is the record:

1927	Won 13, Lost 6	1931	Won 13, Lost 1
1928	Won 17, Lost 3	1932	Won 16, Lost 2

ZONE DEFENSE

With nineteen victories and only three defeats this year, Westminster was ranked as one of the five best teams in the eastern part of the country. The Titans scored a total of nine hundred and eighty-two points to six hundred and fifty-seven for their opponents, or an average of 44.63 points per contest to 29.4 for their rivals.

The season opened on December seventeenth with the Titans entertaining and defeating the team from Wittenberg College on the Westminster floor. The score was forty-four to twenty-three.

During Christmas vacation the team travelled to the east and caused quite a stir by defeating three of the potentially great teams of the New York district.

The victory over John Marshall on the twenty-eighth of December was gained by the slim margin of one point, but the next night St. Johns was met and defeated at Madison Square Garden, and on the thirty-first of December City College of New York fell. This twenty-eight to twenty-four victory over City College, as well as being the first time that Westminster has beaten them, was the first time in four years that they have been defeated on their own floor.

On the third of January the team, home from their eastern jaunt, went to Pittsburgh and defeated the basketball team of the Carnegie Institute of Technology thirty-three to thirty. With barely seconds to go the score was tied at thirty each, but a basket and a foul in the dying moments brought Westminster a hard-earned victory.

Following the Tech game there was a series of four home games. On January fifth Glenville came to New Wilmington and was defeated sixty to twenty-four. Slippery Rock met the Titans on the seventh of January, and although the team from the State Teacher's College was ahead at the half, they were beaten thirty-nine to twenty-six. On the twelfth of January Waynesburg was defeated fifty-three to twenty-nine, and on the sixteenth of January Salem was vanquished seventy-three to twenty-three. This last game marks the first time a Westminster team has scored seventy or more points in a game for several seasons.

On the twenty-third of January the Titans received their first defeat of the season at the hands of the team from the University of Pittsburgh. Unfortunately this game, which was played at the Pitt Stadium, almost paralleled the defeat of last year; for although we led by nearly ten points at the half, the Panthers came back strong in the second period to take a thirty-eight to thirty-two victory.

Two games were played at home, one at Erie, and a third at home before the team departed for a six-day trip into West Virginia. On the fourth of February Bethany was defeated fifty-one to thirty-three at New Wilmington; and on the sixth Geneva, one of the ranking teams in the district, was smothered under a barrage of Titan baskets and defeated by the score of forty-seven to thirty-two. This victory is even more noteworthy when we realize that Geneva had a lead of nine points at the half. The Edinboro State Teacher's College team was defeated in Erie on the thirteenth of February. The score was fifty-four to twenty-three. On the fifteenth of February the team from Rider College of Trenton, New Jersey was defeated on the New Wilmington floor fifty-six to twenty-six.

On the twentieth of February the team left by bus for the southern part of the state. Waynesburg College was defeated forty-nine to forty-six that evening, and the next day the team went to Clarksburg, W. Va. where they established their headquarters for the next few days. That night the Blue and White suffered its second defeat of the season in an astounding upset game at Salem College, Salem, W. Va. Tired by their long trip, and apparently caught in the moment of a slump, the score of thirty-nine to thirty-eight certainly did not show the Titans to be in the same fettle as when they defeated the Salem team in New Wilmington. The next night the Titans went to Glenville and defeated the champions of the West Virginia conference sixt-three to thirty-four. On the evening of the twenty-third West Virginia Wesleyan was defeated by a score of thirty-six to twenty-eight at Buckhannon, and on Sunday the twenty-fourth of February the team appeared back in New Wilmington.

On the twenty-seventh Edinboro State Teacher's, which by that time had proved to be the champion State Teacher's College team of the state, was again defeated. This time the score was forty-four to twenty-four.

On Saturday, March second, Slippery Rock Teachers was defeated forty-eight to twenty-four at Slippery Rock.

The final game of the season occurred at Beaver Falls against Geneva, and was the third defeat inflicted on the Titans. The Covenanters had been pointing to this game, and the Blue and

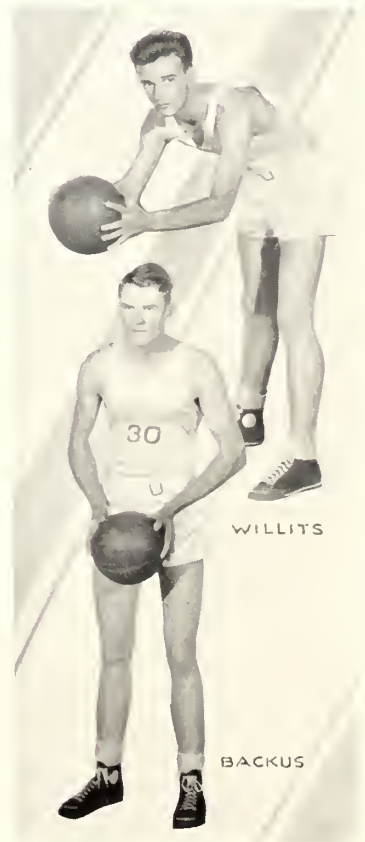

PITT GAME

White players were undoubtedly tired by the gruelling seven games just behind them, so that the final score of thirty-one to twenty-six was not entirely indicative of each team's potentiality.

At the conclusion of the season, Wesley Bennett, Titan pivot man, who led all district scorers with a total of three hundred and one points, was placed on both the all-east and all-district teams. New York reporters voted him the most outstanding court star to appear in Madison Square Garden this season. Every one of the other members of the team was selected either on all-district or all-opponent teams.

The eight players who competed in sufficient games to qualify for letter are: Captain John Wilhelm, Kittaning, Pa.; Ray Sweeney, Youngstown, Ohio; Wesley Bennett, Akron, Ohio; Peter Leyshock, Farrell, Pa.; Henry Hunneke, Baldwin, L. I.; Paul Backus, Youngstown, Ohio; Jack Willits, Ford City, Pa.; and John Krivosh, Sharon, Pa. Student manager Robert Scarbrough of McDonald, Ohio, has also been awarded a letter. Captain John Wilhelm and Ray Sweeney are the only two lettermen to be lost by graduation.

IN TRAINING

Cross Country

SINCE an engagement with Muskingum was unfortunately cancelled, Coach R. X. Graham's Cross-Country Team had only two meets this season.

The University of Pittsburgh was met on the Thirteenth of October, and the Blue and White harriers were swamped by the score of fifteen to forty. On the tenth of November the Titans again failed to place a runner in a meet with Carnegie Tech on the Schenley Park Course.

Lettermen for the past season are Spencer Davis, Willard George, Joseph Wallace, Donald Garrett, Donald Schumaker, Hans Holm, Richard Joho, and Student Manager Richard Nelson. Due to a decided lack of interest in cross-country running among district schools, it is doubtful if Westminster will sponsor a team in the future.

Westminster

Volume xxxi

Just following the turn of the century Westminster College published its first annual. That pioneering staff chose the name Argo for the book because they hoped that it might aid them just as the original Argo had given hope to Jason who ventured into unknown waters in his search for the Golden Fleece.

Well-rewarded is the person who goes to the shelf in the college library where the back numbers of the Argo are filed and compares the thirty-odd copies to be found there. The physical appearance of the book has profoundly improved with the advances made in printing methods during the past thirty years; college activities and curriculum have broadened themselves astonishingly; but the spirit and purpose of the book have remained the same. Therefore, the staff of the Argo of 1936 takes the liberty of expressing its aim in the words of those of the Argo of 1904 — "We have tried not only to furnish the reader a little amusement and entertainment, but also to give a general idea of the different phases and departments of college life at Westminster"

In 1930 the Argo became a charter member of the National Scholastic Press Association, and it has several times won high honors in the competition conducted by that organization.

The Holcad

Founded in 1884

The Newspaper of The Westminster Student Body

Published Each Week of the College Year

Westminster's Holcad has changed several times in size and frequency of publication until we now have a five-column, four-page, tabloid-style paper with a rotogravure supplement. Even more important than its physical evolution, however, is the fact that since 1884 — when the first issue was published — the Holcad has improved with each forward movement of the successive generations of students. It has become the mouthpiece by which the students express their appreciation and objections to the actions of the administrations. With the introduction of journalism as an academic subject six years ago, student editors and staff members became better prepared for the mechanical side of newspaper publication. These courses, too, have aroused a new and deeper interest in journalism among the students. Many hours are spent in the writing and editing of the Holcad by the student staff.

The Holcad has for the last three year competed with the best college newspapers. News coverage, advertising, circulation, style of writing — every phase of the Holcad's publications has received favorable comment from students, faculty, and alumni, and from professional journalists and from student journalists of other colleges.

News Bureau

Westminster has become known from the east to the west due to its News Bureau, which was organized in 1927 under the supervision of Professor R. X. Graham.

The bureau sends out approximately 750 stories each year to over 100 district publications. The proportion of newspaper publicity sent out is about two-thirds general news and one-third sports. Some three hundred photographs of students and student activities are supplied to newspaper syndicates each year.

In addition to news and illustrations to the daily press, the news bureau office edits the alumni news, plans and writes the student enrollment material, and issues a weekly calendar of campus activities.

The bureau is a member of the American Publicity Association.

Handbook

Every Freshman that enters Westminster is presented with a Handbook, or rather with a "bluebook", which is published jointly by the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. This book is small, but each year it serves a large place in the lives of the incoming students, because it is the quickest and most reliable method by which freshmen can gain the necessary information concerning our school.

The book contains the answers to almost all the questions a freshman could possibly ask. It is made up of sections telling about the college buildings, administrations, traditions, and regulations; social and honorary fraternities, and all activities such as student government, religious organizations, dramatics, publications, athletics, and musical organizations.

Debate Squad

2nd row—Booth, Ewalt, Henderson, Gerstner, Kendlehart*

Of the fifty-two debates scheduled for the 1934-35 season thirty-two were for men and twenty for women. Sixteen of these debates were held at home, twenty-four on the numerous trips, and twelve in tournaments. Four different types of debating were used: Oregon, Parliamentary, Direct, Clash, and Conventional.

Student Council

*1st row—Bontrager, Murray, Baird, Forsman, Isaho
2nd row—Smith, Kellett, Offutt, Snyder*

The Student council is a body of representatives elected from each of the four classes. It acts as a connecting link between the student body and the faculty; forms the pivot about which all other campus organizations revolve; and acts as supervisor over class elections and Freshman regulations.

THE WORLD WE LIVE IN

STARS AND GROCERIES

The Little Theatre Season at Westminster has been very outstanding this year, both for the unusualness of the productions and for their excellence. The presentations ranged from a melodrama of the type popular in the last century to the last word in modern stylized plays.

The season opened on Homecoming Day with the presentation of three one-act plays. These, as well as most of the other one-acts, were directed by students of the department of speech. The plays were: The Man Who Thought of Everything (E. N. Taylor) directed by Helen McLaughry, Wistful Waiting (L. E. Joseph) directed by Jane Holland and Sham (F. G. Tompkins) directed by McCrea Hazlett. Wistful Waiting and Sham have been repeated several times in neighboring towns since their opening.

The second group of one-acts was presented on January eleventh and twelfth. They were: Farewell Cruel World (W. A. Kimball) directed by Katherine Lynch, Stars and Groceries (Ursula McDougal) directed by Helen McLaughry, and Winsome Winnie (Stephen Leacock) directed by McLees Murray.

The last series of three plays was presented on April eleventh and twelfth, and included The Maker of Dreams (Oliphant Dawn) and The Noble Lord (Percival Wilde) both directed by Mrs. A. T. Cordray, and The Valiant (Robert Middlemas and Holworthy Hall) directed by Harry Dobkin. The last mentioned play is deemed one of the most moving of modern one-act dramas.

There were three long plays produced this year. The Enemy (Channing Pollock) directed by Professor A. T. Cordray, was presented on November twenty-first, twenty-second, and twenty-third. The play, written during the post-war period, contains an exceedingly earnest cry for peace. Especially noteworthy in this production was, first, the acting of Miss Jane Holland, who took the leading role; and, second, the outstanding sound effects.

Perhaps the outstanding drama of the year was The World We Live In or The Insect Comedy (Joseph and Karel Capek) presented March sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth. The play, originally Czecho-Slovakian, has had wide popularity since its introduction into America, and has been presented in many college and university theatres during the past decade. The play is an exceedingly bitter satire upon human beings done through the medium of insects. There is a surprising analogy drawn between, for instance, the home-loving crickets and home-loving humans. The entire show, which is in reality composed of a prologue and four separate one-act plays, is tied together by the character of the Vagrant which was admirably played by Avalon LeMonte. The Westminster production was undoubtedly remarkable for its fine staging.

The final play of the year was Three Cornered Moon (Gertrude Tonkonogy) presented on May thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth. The show, which was a comedy of modern life, concerned the improvident and scatter-brained

Rimplegar family and their financial successes and failures. Miss Virginia McCown took the most prominent role in this show.

To Stage Manager Richard Nelson and his crew, to Miss Isabel Sheetz, Costume Mistress; and to Professor A. H. Cordray, Director of the Little Theatre; all of whom were responsible in guiding the Theatre through an exceedingly successful season, the Argo offers its heartiest congratulations.

WINSOME WINNIE

Westminster College Band

This year, as previously, the Conservatory of Music combined with the faculty committee on concerts has presented a splendid and varied series of entertainments.

Following Foster's Footsteps, which Gordon Balch Nevin, the composer of the piece, terms a "Dramusical," was presented by the Women's Glee Club under the direction of Miss Ada Peabody. The college band and orchestra, both directed by Professor Donald O. Cameron, have performed both at their own concerts and at many of the college functions throughout the year. The newly formed male quartet, the string quartet, and the a cappella choir have taken part in programs both at home and in neighboring towns, while the chapel choir has furnished music for the daily and Sunday chapel services.

Professional concert artists, too, figured greatly in the program of the music department this past season. Mr. Robert Crawford, baritone, presented a program in the college chapel on November 9; Jeanne de Nault, Canadian contralto, and Arthur Loesser, pianist, presented a distinguished classical program in the chapel on March 15; and Miss Ora Witte, soprano, and Mr. Samuel Gardner, violinist, also were presented in recital on April 5. Gordon Balch Nevin, instructor in the department of music presented three organ programs during the year. Mr. Nevin, besides being a talented organist, is a composer of some note.

Foreword » » »

The staff of the 1936 ARGO wishes to thank the advertisers who have made possible this section of the book, and to recommend them to Westminster students as dealers in quality merchandise. A word of deep appreciation is also due to the alumni patrons who have so generously contributed to the ARGO.

We hope that the pleasant personal and business relationships which prevail today between Westminster and her friends may be continued to their mutual benefit.

JUST A LITTLE EXTRA

CARELESS motorists drive into any "filling" station for gasoline. They just don't know the difference. For instance, at a Gulf service station you get quality gasoline and quality motor oil. You receive all the extra free services. You are attended by trained men capable of giving your car a first-rate, long-lasting greasing. You are offered the exclusive Gulf Info-Map. And a copy of the amusing Gulf Funny Weekly is yours for the asking. If you realize these differences and drive into a Gulf station, you save money and protect your car.
